Fearless

American Music Club

Lost again, am I lost again?
I closed my eyes and kept on going
Now, I'm gone and nothing's gonna endure
Unless I love you even moreFound again, am I found again?
By your hands, my home is in your hands
And that's a touch I don't deserve anymore
Unless I love you even moreA stubborn heart can stay broken forever
But someday the tightrope's gonna break
And will I fall into a cool, cool river
Or will I fall into a frozen lakeSaved again, am I saved again?
By your eyes, the tears in your eyes
And it's your tears, they're the only thing that makes me sure
I've got to love you even more
