

I Love You, Will You Marry Me

YUNGBLUD

Someone call the police
There's been a robbery
Park hill romance
We got the love
But they put out the fire
Park hill romance
Coz they expect us
To walk on the wire
Park hill romance
We got the love
But they put out the fire
Park hill romance
Coz they expect us
To walk on the wire
A kid lifts up a spray can
And never thought it would be famous
What he did
Turned the mess into a dreamland
With a quirky act of romance A version of Romeo and Juliet
This time with adidas, sneakers and cigarettes
A couple of kids trying to cut down the safety net
They twisted the story
So they could bring glory to it I love ya
Will you marry me?
Oh what a shame we gotta pay for reality
Ain't it sad, sad, sad
Park hill romance
We got the love
But they put out the fire
Park hill romance
Coz they expect us
To walk on the wire
Park hill romance
We got the love
But they put out the fire
Park hill romance
Coz they expect us
To walk on the wire They didn't write her name on the article
That to me just seems pretty farcical

Now coppers take coppers out of his hands from a ban from alcohol

Fundamental narcissistic

Tried to make out he didn't exist

When they wrote on the what

When they wrote on the t-shirts, cool merch and postcards

And lighting it up like a piece of art

They kicked him to the side and left him to starve

The memory that's re-breaking his broken heart I love ya

Will you marry me?

Oh what a shame we gotta pay for reality

Ain't it sad, sad, sad I love ya

Will you marry me?

Oh what a shame we gotta pay for reality

Ain't it sad, sad, sad Everyday, everyday, every single day

Everyday, everyday, every single day I love ya

Will you marry me?

Oh what a shame we gotta pay for reality

Ain't it sad, sad, sad I love ya

Will you marry me?

Oh what a shame we gotta pay for reality

Ain't it sad, sad, sad Park hill romance

We got the love

But they put out the fire

Park hill romance

Coz they expect us

To walk on the wire

Park hill romance

We got the love

But they put out the fire

Park hill romance

Coz they expect us

To walk on the wire Park hill romance
