

Please take Her Home

Moe Bandy

This is not my first time at a party
And I know when a woman's comin' on
But I don't know how long I can resist her

So if she's your woman please take her homePlease take her home tonight and love her

Love needs more than words to keep it strong

Please take her home tonight and love her

Love her till that wanting feeling's gone

[steel]

I can't be your friend and love your woman

Everything inside me says that's wrong

But the way she touches me when you're not looking

Man if she's your woman please take her homePlease take her home...

Mister won't you please take her home
