Benediction

In oceans of light
Haunts the bleak river
Mindless spectre
Summons malice without thoughtInsane paradox of dreams gone awry
Stalked and thrown on funeral pyresYeah, the wrathful one
A screaming sea, foul shoreInsane paradox of dreams gone awry
Stalked and thrown on funeral pyresSound without substance
Whispers softly and low
The waters speak and roar
Echoes in the skullEach drop of human soul
From tragedy
Drowning victims amplify
It's desire to conceiveInsane paradox of dreams gone awry
Stalked and thrown on funeral pyresThe skullSeek the lake of voices
Fluid chorus of loss
Destroyed in order
Created in chaosSmothered
Identity cast to the flow
Slave
To water's illusion
Your body dissolves, dissolvesFettered
Existence to the whole
Never break
The walls between the realmsFlesh wound never bleed
But yearn for the depths
Agony, there's no peace
Even in deathDark wisdom brings power
An illusion deceived
Union of fellow souls
I wept as it entered meInsane paradox of dreams gone awry
Stalked and thrown on funeral pyres
Pyres, pyres, pyres, pyres, pyres, pyres
