Love Me In Whatever Way

James Blake

Where you lead me I will go
Where the rose water passes and dry river flows
And if that's the way this year
Guess the thorns are on and the bloom I always fear
Tell me where I have to go
And then love me there
Tell me when I have to go
And then love me thereI won't be so loud if this is what you need
I won't be so loud if you won't take my lead
I know some men hurt more than me
But giving up is hard to doThis is a lonely off-white room
I keep my gaze on you, while other people move
Where you lead me I will go
Guess the thorns are on and the bloom I always fear
Tell me when I have to go
And then love me there
Tell me when I have to go
And then love me thereLove me in whatever way
Oh, ahThis is a lonely off-white room
I keep my gaze on you, while other people move
Where you lead me I will go
Where the rose water passes and dry river flowsLove me in whatever way
(I can't give up, not now, not then)
Love me in whatever way
(I can't give up, not now, not then)
Love me in whatever way (Not then, I can't go)
Love me in whatever way (Not now, not then)
(I can't give up, not now, not then)
Love me in whatever way
I can't give up, not now, not then, not then
