

Love Has Gone Away

Abbey Lincoln

Love has gone away heaving a sign with no regrets for yesterday heaving a side love said goodbye so with sad and love, love walked away, a spirit child love had to go, loves has to play, love went away, away from a place of fools in pain with teardrops and heartaches all again only a game of hatred and love all thrown in together of kiss or shove reaching for my hand love walked away, sighing to leave, but ready to stay love walked away
loved walked away and I walked away with love.
It change for my heart, love walked away sad in to leave, ready to stay
love walked away
love walked away
love walked away, and i walked away with love.
