

Right Side of the Bed (Burnout 3 OST)

Atreyu

Come on I can see her now
Dancing around her drink in hand
All her baggage in tow
I just want to forget and let go Of all other joy, the pain
I took your guilt and placed it into me
And now I kiss it goodbye
Our last dance ended fatally Who's sleeping on my side of the bed tonight?
Have you ever cried so hard?
Baby you just died
Who's sleeping on my side of the bed tonight?
Have you ever cried so hard?
Have you ever cried so hard? There she goes again
Another masquerade in false circumstance
She'll fuck you just for the taste
I just wish that I could replace All the memories of What makes my blood run cold
As your blood runs through me
I say goodbye to what we had Who's sleeping on my side of the bed tonight?
Have you ever cried so hard?
Baby you just died
Who's sleeping on my side of the bed tonight?
Have you ever cried so hard?
Have you ever cried so hard? She came and went, I gnawed through my lip
Make-up smeared in her eyes
Each sob's a reason to say goodbye
Sometimes when you're holding on, you never see the light With flowers in her hair
Gazed upon with dead lovers eyes
She never looked so good
And I never felt so right With flowers in her hair
Gazed upon with dead lovers eyes
She never looked so good
And I never felt so right
Never felt so right
I never felt so wrong With flowers in her hair
Gazed upon with dead lovers eyes
She never looked so good
And I never felt so right Who's sleeping on my side of the bed tonight?
Have you ever cried so hard?
Baby you just died

Who's sleeping on my side of the bed tonight?

Have you ever cried so hard?

Have you ever cried so hard? You just died
