

Wishful Thinking

Carl Belew

Wishing I could see you again, dear
That the fire of love would burn once more
But I guess that's wishful thinking
And too much to be wishing for Just thinking how you once kissed me
Wishing that hadn't meant goodbye
But I guess that's wishful thinking
Now I know why some people cry I'll just live my life in dreams
And long for your love
It's you I'm wishing for
And it's you I'm thinking of My heart echoes the love words you've spoken
How I wish I could hear them from you
Please make my wishful thinking come true
