

Necropol Lit

Madder Mortem

RemakeHere I am in Necropolis
Run my fingers down my spine
Beneath my feet a thousand ruins

Coming here in my own timeHere I am and here I'm staying Queen of all that crawls and dies
Queen of crippled, blistered bodies

It's all done and it's all mineLay down all at your master's feet
The taint is on you now
This is my turf, this is my land so let the virtue goAnd now I see in painful clarity

Intention that was and the truth that will beRemember the Necropol litWading through the mirthless alleys
Smell the fear, the cold stale air
Bones and teeth, a garden withered
Broken hands and broken livesRemember
