The Compliment Song

Even Rude

I'll bet the chicks really dig you. With chops like that, who could blame them?
I would hook you up, but my dates roommate is kind of a snob.
Yeah, she's kind of a snob.Yeah.....Time, time, time is all around you.
Fly, fly, fly away and leave me down.I've seen your face before my friend. Oh yeah! You're the singer in that band.
You got me laid last night at your show.My dates pretty fly yo. That's her over there with the plain Margarita.
I'm gonna take her home now. Make sure you drop me a line when you're star.
Cause baby you're a star.Yeah.....Time, time, time is all around you.
Fly, fly, fly away and leave me down.I've seen you face before my friends. Oh yeah! You're the singer in that band.
You got me laid last night at your show.And I thank you.
