

Mr. Nobody

The Standells

I know a funny little man as quiet as a mouse
in everybody's house
Yet one and all agree that every plate we break or every glass we break was cracked by Mr.

The papers that are lost who had them last but he?

Everybody knows who's Mr. Nobody

If you cannot find your keys

you don't have to take it bad

you think it was my fault but that was Mr

The one and only who's always hidden you better try not to think about him.

The papers that are lost who had them last but he?

I've never seen his face and you're too the cat is so upset I think you're too his are the feet that bring in the mud and the carpet soil in your room.
