

Island in the Stream

Fates Warning

Have you stood at the edge of the world where the sea and sky collide looked out to a distant horizon and dreamed of drifting awayHave you stood beneath a troubled sky and watched the dark clouds gathering closed your eyes to the threatening tide and woke to another dayFeel the cold winds all around let the night circle and surround you breathe deep the the darkness that drowns you let your imagination take youTo where your sleepless mind rests to where your thoughts all run free to your island in the stream where you can dream at the edge of the worldTo where our restless minds will sleep to where our hearts will run free to our island in the stream where we can dream at the edge of the worldTo our island in the stream...
