

Aero Spaceage Inferno

Hawkwind

A flight of steel eagles tearing by
The ripped silk scream of the rended sky
Flame on through sound and make time fly
What a good way to go...
What a good way to go In the aerospace age... inferno Fly through sound like a circus hound
Through the burning hoop with just one bound
So not even your ashes will be found
What a good way to go...
What a good way to go In the aerospace age... inferno Set the controls for the heart of the Earth
The silver machine is worth more than you're worth
But the Phoenix soul is bound for rebirth
What a good way to go...
What a good way to go
In the aerospace age... inferno
