One Day

Audio Karate

and maybe one day if you would just look straight into my eyes and you would find your son inside not just a twinkle in your eye and maybe you'd say
"I did the best I can with what I know" our hollowed past will feed the wrong it makes more sense to move alongand maybe one day maybe you'd say
keep ourselves from moving on
and we will try and get along maybe one day
maybe one day
we will both just lead our lives and we will try and compromise again, without yousome things we're happy you could say:
doesn't matter anyway
doesn't matter in the end doesn't matter, all depends and I was happy just to say
doesn't matter anyway
and I was happy just to say I met youand maybe one day
maybe you'd say
maybe one day
maybe one day
if we could both just lead our lives and we would try and compromise
maybe one day
