Needles In the Camel's Eye (2004 Remaster)

Brian Eno

Those who know
They don't let it go
They just give you one long glance
And you go, oh, oh, ohGoes to show
How winds blow
The weather's fine
And I feel so, so, soBirds of prey
With too much to say
Oh, what could be my destiny?
Another rainy dayWhy? Ask why?
For by the by and by
All mysteries are just more
Needles in the camel's eyeThose who know
They don't let it go
They just give you one long glance
And you go, oh, oh, ohWhy? Ask why?
For by the by and by
All mysteries are just more
Needles in the camel's eye
