

Impossible

Venture

Every thought I have about you, makes it hard to see all the things that I have right in front of me.
The situation that I'm left with,
is taking all the life, I can't find any air left for me to breathe

Will you feel it when it's closer to the end?
You're stepping back from where it all began...

Impossible
Just try me
I'll wait here as long as you want me to be Impossible
But still I believe
My time will come if I wait patiently

Well I'm afraid of life without you, so I try to hide all the flaws, that are left out,
for you to see Praying that you never find them, they're buried in a hole, all alone that I dug, so very deep

Will you feel it when it's closer to the end?
You're stepping back from where it all began...

Impossible
Just try me
I'll wait here as long as you want me to be Impossible
But still I believe
My time will come if I wait patiently
Impossible
Just try me Just try me

I've thrown my hands down, and I walk alone
My eyes have grown tired and I walk away

Don't walk away

Don't walk away

Impossible

Just try me

I'll wait here as long as you want me to be

Impossible

But still I believe

My time will come if I wait patiently

Impossible

Impossible

Impossible

Impossible

Just try me
