Unforgiveable

Claudia BrÃ¼cken

You used to light up the dark
With your unrelenting spark
It always put a fire in meYou used to say I'm the one
The only ray of sun you could touch without the fear of burningWell you used to try to please me
Yeah you used to try to please meNever said this would be easy
Never said this would be easyWell now, you tell her now
While you hold her in your arms
Are you pretending shes me?Just alone I go
Before you realize shes the one that you're going to lose anyway
You just got there now you're leaving
You just got there now you're leavingYour sweet notes are deceiving
Your sweet notes are deceivingWell it ain't over till its over and my world shuts down
But this comes close I'll have you know
Its just a matter of time
But it ain't over till its over but I won't be made a fool
'Cause leaving me the way you did was just so Unforgivable....
