Let's Stop Pretending

Brooke Hyland

Ooo-oohh, ooo-oohh-h, ooo-oohh-h
Ooo-oohh, ooo-oohh-h, ooo-oohhEverybody knows, and it really shows that Everywhere we go, people stare
Every secret note, you gave that you wrote, yeah
I kept them locked inside me, I swear, I swear'Cuz it's you and me, and everyone knows
Let's stop pretending, it's making me crazy
It's you and me, and boy, we both know
What we share's amazing, so let's stop pretending we don'tI think they overheard, the secret little words
I just wanna shout everywhere
It's none of their concern, but people never learn
It really doesn't matter, I don't care'Cuz it's you and me, and everyone knows
So let's stop pretending, it's making me crazy
It's you and me, and boy, we both know
What we share's amazing, so let's stop pretending we don'tI know what I feel, I know that it's real
I don't wanna hide it inside
I wanna tell the world, I'm your only girl
There's no stronger love you can findIt's you and me, and everyone knows
Let's stop pretending, it's making me crazy
It's you and me, and we're on the road
To fairytale endings, so let's stop pretending'Cuz it's you and me, and everyone knows
So let's stop pretending, it's making me crazy
It's you and me, and boy, we both know
What we share's amazing, so let's stop pretending we don't
