THE LEGEND OF THE FALL ©2013 Rock of Life Music words and music by Ellen Tiff There's a panic in the willow

Something isn't right

A suicidal hunger

That puts the birds to flight Is there anyone to stop it now

Can anybody help us now Something's going under on the inside

Lies and secrets thrive behind the wall

Silver tongues will carve their words to justify

The legend of the fall Is there anyone to stop it now

Can anybody save us now They crushed the hand that feeds us

With synergistic greed

Impunity, collusion, and control

Is corrupting every seed Is there anyone to stop it now

Can anybody help us now Something's going under on the inside

Stones and arrows can't break through the wall

The lunatic denies the call to rectify

The legend of the fall Is there anyone to stop it now

Can anybody save us now Something's going under on the inside

Hell and fury burn behind the wall

Those who find the fountain come to realize

The legend of the fall Only God can stop it now

God save us now
