The Liquidator

Shirley Bassey

The liquidator
Will soon be coming around
You won't feel safer
Until you get out of townHe's an eraser
He'll rub you out like a light
And for a chaser
He'll kiss your woman goodnightHe's a jackal and a Romeo, you know
The devil in disguise
There's no telling where a girl would go, you know
To gaze into his eyesWith the snapping of the fingertips of him
He'll take your life away
And a whisper from the smiling lips of him
Will take your wife awayThe liquidator
Will soon be getting to you
You'll wake up later
Somewhere up in the blueThe undertaker
Would never try to deny
That the liquidator
Is a hell of a guyThe liquidator
