Carrier Of A Secret

Sissel

Carrier of a secret
No one wants to know
Show a little conscienceGuardian of the palace
No one wants to go
Broken hearted monsterTell me the words that'll touch me
Tell me what's hurting you soCarrier of a secret
Let your secret goCarrier of a secret
Whispered in the dark
What are you afraid of?Carrier of a secret
Hidden in your heart
Show me what you are made ofNow put your hand to the quiver
Now to the bend of the bowLet it fly, let it light the sky above you
Let it fly, let somebody try to love youCarrier of a secret
To unhip to show
Too uncool to mentionCarrier of a secret
Let your secret go
More like confessionNow like a bird from your window
Now like a song from your heartLet it fly, let it light the sky above you
Let it fly, let somebody try to love youHow many mountains must you climb?
How many tears must you cry?
How many seasons must go by
Before you let your secret fly?
How many mountains must you climb
Before you let your secret flow?Let it fly, let it light the sky above you(Fly)
How many mountains must you climb?
How many tears must you cry?
How many seasons must go by
Before you let your secret(Fly)
How many mountains must you climb?
How many tears must you cry?
(Let somebody try to love you)
How many seasons must go by
Before you let your secret flyHow many mountains must you climb?
How many tears must you cry?
How many seasons must go by
Before you let your secret fly?How many mountains must you climb?
How many tears must you cry?
How many seasons must go by
Before you let your secret fly?
