Naked Skin

Japan Suicide

I can't get a feeling of my naked skin.
I can't turn it to a chain, I can't blame it, I can't fall.

"I have been half in love with easeful death" [cit. Keats]

I can't get away from all that hasn't been,
I can't forget every prick of shame on me.

"I have been half in love with easeful death"ï»¿
