Predetermined skyIn the heart of the land of creation
Grows a threat which cannot be healed
Efforts soar to restore generations
Grave results give this outbreak the nailThe growing devastation
Brings human extinction
This plague aims at our weakness
Predetermined skyCradles fall into pine for the mourning
Wailing cries blend endless each day
Poverty proves more than a lifestyle
Sumpathy can not sure diseaseThis plague aims at our weakness
Predetermined sky, blind eye
This plague aims at our weakness
Predetermined sky, blind eyeSaw a man on the streets of Lusaka
Selling coffins to a passerby
How can we live in a world
That lets millions dieHow can we live with such a tragic sideSaw a man on the streets of Lusaka
Selling coffins to a passer bye
How can we live in a world
That let's the millions die
That let's the millions cry
That let's us agonizeShow us the way to terminate
Show us the way to terminate
Immersed in all our dusts is the mother world
Immersed in all our dusts is the mother world
Immersed in all our dusts is the mother world
Immersed in all our dusts is the mother world
