

We'll Never Have to Say Goodbye Again

England Dan & John Ford Coley

Turn on the radio, we'll play it way down low
There's a tear in your eye
That's reflecting the fire's glowAnd I wish that this night would never end
The sun ain't gonna be my friend
Lying here awaiting here and wishing I knew when
We'll never have to say goodbye again
We'll never have to say goodbye againYou must leave, I know you will
I won't let you go until you show me the secret
For making this time stand stillAnd somewhere sometime from now
Together again somehow all of the waiting will seem Like a moment and then
We'll never have to say goodbye again
We'll never have to say goodbye againThe whole night afraid to see the light
And the whole day crying, wishing I knew when
We'll never have to say goodbye again
We'll never have to say goodbye again
