Was

The Figments

It was a moonless night, it was an empty sky
It was a bad excuse, I was the only fool in sight
It was a crazy thought, a mad man's walk it was
It was a moonless night, it was an empty sky
It was a bad excuse, I was the only fool in sight
It was a crazy thought, a mad man's walk it was
I had a wanderin' eye, she was a better time
One twisted heart, a black cat's walkin' by
She was a crazy thought, a mad man's walk she was Oh no, she was
She was a long way home, walkin' broken bones
It wasn't wrong or right, how deep that knife could go?
It was a crazy thought, a mad man's walk it was
It was a crazy thought, a mad man's walk it was
She was a hangman's noose
I was the fool, I was, oh I was
Yeah, baby baby, I was
