Certainty

A.Tone Da Priest

(Hook)
She wanna wanna wait, she wanna wanna wait,
She wanna wanna wait, she wanna wanna wait,
She said she said, she said, she said, she said she said
She said she said, she said, she said, she said she said
(Verse 1)
You think you know, I bet youll see
That in the end, its not so unique
Watch you hanging off of words, best not to speak
Its apart of you, playing in this game called grief
Cant sleep or wake up, possessed by mistake
Second thoughts are like my first, happiness become hate
My fate, your date, in a calendar off balance or the same
Who am I to blame, plain its a shame so lame but ill endure
(I dont think I want to wait) 4x
A chore, the waiting, for answer or a chance to advance further with you
(Hook)
Make decisions with certainty my friend
Just believe stop searching cant
You see the light on the other side itll come back around
Who decides whos alive, is it up or down
Profoundly proficient, enhanced with a digit
A casket in vision, these dreams seem awfully vicious
Is it me? Eyes see, whats going on here
As two of one unit fear its gonna be a long year
(I dont think I want to wait) 4x
(Hook)
