

Sweet and a Lullaby

Natalie Merchant

There's not a rose where I seek comely as my baby's cheek
There's not a comb of honey-bee,
So full of sweets as babe to me
And it's O! so sweet
Sweet and a lullaby There's not a star that shines on high
Brighter than my baby's eye
Not a boat upon the sea
Can dance like baby does for me
And it's O! so sweet
Sweet and a lullaby And it's O! so sweet
Sweet and a lullaby No silk has ever spun so fine
As the hair of baby mine
