

Panic

French Kiss

oh baby ooh baby

Nothing like you baby, ever happened to me before I know what to do yeah, so what am I waiting for?

Right now my lips won't kiss you
And I can't get my arms to move no, no no
I feel like my feet are planted
And I can't get my mind to groove

I'm in a panic

When I look at you, I get chills up and down my spine
The feeling is new yeah, so please won't you give me time

Right now my soul is trembling
And I can't get my heart to speak this mad is making me dizzy
And my knees are feeling weak

I'm in a panic
save me Im in a panic
save me Im in a panic
I'm in a panic
oh because Im in a panic
save me Im in a panic

Take my hand, come on hold me close to you Do what you can and do what you have to do

I'll be the kind of lover that a guy like you deserves
When there's a fire within me, and I not just a bundle of nerves

I'm in a panic
oh oh oh
I'm in a panic
