Say Something Anyway

Bellefire

Some say hearts grow silent
In a world where no one cares
Love keep slipping away
Some say time is the healer
But in a house where no one speaks
Love keep slipping away
Tell me why do we fight
When we know it's all wrong?
Why do we play that same old song?
Is it just because we're lonely?
Love me, love me but don't be sorry
Help me, chase the shadows away
Love me, love me
When you've got nothing to say
Say something anyway
Some say tears run dry
But in my heart I've cried forever
Only you can take it away
Tell me why do we fight
When we know it's all wrong?
Why can't we see what's going on?
Is it just because we're lonely?
Love me, love me but don't be sorry
Help me chase the shadows away
Love me, love me
When you've got nothing to say
Say something anyway
Anything to break the ice
Anything at all
Anything to break the ice
Anything at all
Love me, love me but don't be sorry
Oh, love me, love me but don't be sorry
Help me chase the shadows away, the shadows away
Love me, love me
When you've got nothing to say
You've got nothing to say
Say something anyway
Help me chase the shadows away

Love me, love me
When you've got nothing to say
Say something anyway
