

To The Tune Of 5,000 Screaming Children

The Juliana Theory

What you want is what you get
We knew you'd hate this before we wrote it
So listen up, we're telling you before you tell us
We're not misinformed or misdirected
Functioning on your subjective
Your hatred only fuels us on
Now how about a word or two on you?
You're an alias, an email address
We lay a lot more out than you do
We won't be part of your revolution
So listen up, we're telling you this is a business
We're not misinformed or misdirected
We'll make our own insurrection
So keep on publishing our wrongs
Now how about a word or two on you?
You're a paper fist, a faceless attack
We're not about to break like you do
We're not misinformed or misdirected
