

Slow Learner

Meredith Edwards

You said no but my heart heard yes
I couldn't face the truth so I kept on lying
I love you but you don't love back
I couldn't deal with that so I kept on trying
There's no denyingThat I'm a slow learner
Can't seem to get it through my head
Must be a slow learner
I still ain't got it yetI drew a blank on the first time
A little fuzzy on the second time
I got a clue on the third time
Now I'm slowly learning
You ain't ever gonna love meNever any good in chemistry
That's why it's hard for me to see we ain't got none
You don't want me I'm a crying mess
And I'd listening to my common sense if I had some
But I'm too in loveAnd I'm a slow learner
Can't seem to get it through my head
Must be a slow learner
I still ain't got it yetI drew a blank on the first time
A little fuzzy on the second time
I got a clue on the third time
Now I'm slowly learning
You ain't ever gonna love meYeah, I'm a slow learner
Can't seem to get it through my head
Must be a slow learner
I still ain't got it yetI drew a blank on the first time
A little fuzzy on the second time
I got a clue on the third time
Now I'm slowly learning
You ain't ever gonna love meYeah, I'm very slowly learning
You ain't ever gonna love meSlow learner
Slow learner
Slow learner
