Difficult

Amaru

Am i good enough for you,
Am i strong enough to bleed,
For someone like you,
When im kicked to my knees.Am i good enough for me,
To watch you walk away,
As i sit here again,
Im alone day by day.Im lying awake,
And think of the dame,
I needed you more of,
Just out of the rain.Its difficult to breathe,
Its difficult to see,
Its what you need,
But everythings so out of your reach.Its difficult to breathe,
Its difficult to see,
But what you need,
Means everything to me.Am i good enough for me,
Am i dumb enough to bleed,
For someone like you,
To give a fuck about me.Am i good enough for you,
You keep walking away,
And im sitting right here,
And again i will say.Cause i lie here awake,
And think of the day,
I needed you more,
Im pushed out of the way.Its difficult to breathe,
Its difficult to see,
Its what you need,
But everythings so out of your reach.Its difficult to breathe,
Its difficult to see,
But what you need,
Means everything to me.And you take a look around,
You kick me when im down,
Cause i wanted something more this time why,
Can you take a look and see,
You're lonely just like me.Its difficult to breathe,
Its difficult to see,
Its what you need,
But everythings so out of your reach.Its difficult to breathe,
Its difficult to see,

But what you need,
Means everything to me,
To me,
To me,
But everythings so out of your reach,
out of your reach,
out of your reach,
so out of your reach,
so out of your reach.
