Healing

Barbies cradle

These aren't pains
the burdens I cradle they have names and now I am ableto face them change them or bless themAnd I thank you most for what you did and didn'tfrom the inside rose someone I had forgottenShe's a good girl she's no stranger
she's wiser
'cause she has come to knowhealing is from the inside when I look close enough i see healing is from the inside peace is in the place within methe rainy day invites melancholy
but in this place nothing ever hurtsit's not lonely here all good things appear i still hold you dearit's not the last time persephone comes to visit me but it's not a bad time when she leavesi'm a good girl i just wander
i'm no stranger
'cause i have come to know
