

Missing Me

RJ Helton

I love the way it feels when you touch my hand
Don't wanna let you go
I love the way you say that I am your man
Don't understand why we can't go on and go on
Don't understand why you don't belong in my armsOhhAnd even if I cried a thousand tears tonight
Would you come back to me?
And even if I walked on the water
Would you come out to see?
Now I can't spend my life standing by
'Cause even when I miss you, you're still not missing meIt's funny how my heart just won't let it go
I just don't understand
It's crazy how the pain seems to overflow
The memories of you here with me by my side
I can't deny that you are the love of my lifeOhhAnd even if I cried a thousand tears tonight
Would you come back to me?
And even if I walked on the water
Would you come out to see?
Now I can't spend my life standing by
'Cause even when I miss you you're still not missing meAnd I still cry for you, and I would die for you
I can't believe all the words I heard you say
And I still long for you, and I was strong for you
I can't believe that you'd throw it all awayI still cry for you, I would die for you
I can't believe all the words I heard you say
I still long for you, I was strong for you
I can't believe that you'd throw it all awayAnd even if I cried a thousand tears tonight
Would you come back to me?
And even if I walked on the water
Would you come out to see?
Now I can't spend my life standing by
'Cause even when I miss you you're still not missing meI still cry for you, I would die for you
I can't believe all the words I heard you say
I still long for you, I was strong for you
I can't believe that you'd throw it all awayNow I can't spend my life standing by
'Cause even when I miss you you're still not missing me
