

The Last Song

McFly

The time has come to say goodbye
The sun is setting in the sky, the truth turned out to be a lie
Its over, over, hum yourself a lullaby
This is the end but baby dont you cry So take away the melody
And all thats left are memories of lovers, friends and enemies
Theyre all fading, you may not remember me
I havent got the strength to carry on If this is the last song Ill ever sing
Then Im giving it everything, Im giving it all
If this is the last song that Ill ever play
Then I guess its time to take my curtain call Im dying to thank you all
Im dying to thank you all
Im dying to thank you all
Thank you all, yeah So heres to all the lonely hearts
'Cause mines been ripped and torn apart
Im colder now, its getting dark but Ill be okay
Bury me with my guitar and all the way to hell Ill play If this is the last song Ill ever sing
Then Im giving it everything, Im giving it all
If this is the last song that Ill ever play
Then I guess its time to take my curtain call Im dying to thank you all
Im dying to thank you all
Im dying to thank you all
Thank you all, yeah One more song before Ive got to go
(Im singing, oh)
From the very bottom of my soul
(And hear it, oh)
Every single word and every note, Im pleading
Let me hear you sing it out once more with feeling One more song before Ive got to go
(Im singing, oh)
From the very bottom of my soul
(And hear it, oh)
Every single word and every note, Im pleading
Let me hear you sing it out once more with feeling If this is the last song Ill ever sing
Im giving it everything, Im giving it all
If this is the last song that Ill ever play
I guess its time to take my curtain call If this is the last song Ill ever sing
Then Im giving it everything, yeah Im giving it all
If this is the last song Ill ever play
Then I guess its time to say we thank you all
