Signs

Under The Flood

Are you too blind
To see this timid lie?
Weak from flight
Caress the oblivious
Poisoned pair
Seduced you unaware
Latch on in fright
And feed my molded mind
Direct me 'til I fall right into line
Perfect me 'til I become your design
Chilling night
Dragged you in the light
What a sight
Abrasive fallen life
Absent eyes
Never saw your crime
Building walls

Composed betrayal
Direct me 'til I fall right into line
Perfect me 'til I become your design
I know you're starving for someone
Who will carry you from all your sorrows and shame
Signs show us beauties tragedy
Muscled happiness will lead to painful misery
You're like a leech to me
I know you've lied a thousand times
You can't stop yourself from dragging down
I won't let him fall
I know you're starving for someone
Who will carry you from all your sorrows and shame
Signs show us beauties tragedy
Muscled happiness will lead to painful misery
