You Pretend

Sunset Black

Listen what the say about me
And watch how they act when I'm around
And listen what they about me
I try to talk but they just turn aroundAnd it didn't take that long for me to notice
That all these people were me
And it didn't take that long for me to notice
How fake you could beI am what you pretend to be everydayThank you for trying
But I'd rather walk awayListen what the say about me
And watch how they act when I'm around
And listen what they about me
I try to talk but they just turn aroundAnd it didn't take that long for me to notice
That all these people were me
No it didn't take that long for me to notice
How fake you could beI am what you pretend to be everydayThank you for trying
But I'd rather walk awayI am what you pretend to be everyday
Thank you for trying
But I'd rather walk away
