Stumbling Block

Dilinger

I'm out on a limb, I'm trying to climb
I'm feeling unsure
Every little thing if you give it time
Is destined to change you
Why can't I take back my past if I wanna
Why can't I lose half my life if I wanna
She'll do anything, she'll hurt anyone
That gets in her way
She'll do anything, she'll hurt anyone
That gets in her way
The slippery tongue, I wrap 'round the words
The web that I've spun
Put a stumbling block in front of the blind
I made you feel dumb
Who says this fruit's gonna last forever
Who says I'm wearing these shoes forever
She'll do anything, she'll hurt anyone
That gets in her way
She'll do anything, she'll hurt anyone
That gets in her way
Locker room dialog boils the fat
To forget you're a kid feels much better than that
Locker room dialog boils the fat
To forget you're a kid feels much better than that
