Proved You Wrong

Cassadee Pope

Cold as ice, your words cut like knives
I deserve a prize, for sticking around this longYou say I'm nothing without you
And no one loves me like you do
Always left me feeling black and blue
Well this can go on and on and on and onBut I hey I'm breaking free just watch me walk away
Had your hooks in me but I escaped
I don't need excuses
Done with your abuses
Telling me that I'm not strong baby
Hey just listen to the song cause
I, I, I proved you wrong
I, I, I proved you wrongIt's easier letting go of us
Said I didn't even have the guts
Yeah, here I am backing up
I'm taking my heart back cause I've had enoughBut I hey I'm breaking free just watch me walk away
Had your hooks in me but I escaped
I don't need excuses
Done with your abuses
Telling me that I'm not strong baby
Hey just listen to the song cause
I, I proved you wrong
Yeah, I proved you wrongHey I'm done with you and all the lies you made
You were such a mistakeHey I'm breaking free just watch me walk away
Had your hooks in me but I escaped
I don't need excuses
Done with your abuses
Telling me that I'm not strong baby
Hey just listen to the song cause
I, I, I proved you wrong
I, I, I proved you wrong
I, I, I proved you wrong
I, I, I proved you wrong
