

Proved You Wrong

Cassadee Pope

Cold as ice, your words cut like knives
I deserve a prize, for sticking around this long
You say I'm nothing without you
And no one loves me like you do
Always left me feeling black and blue
Well this can go on and on and on and on
But I hey I'm breaking free just watch me walk away
Had your hooks in me but I escaped
I don't need excuses
Done with your abuses
Telling me that I'm not strong baby
Hey just listen to the song cause
I, I, I proved you wrong
I, I, I proved you wrong
It's easier letting go of us
Said I didn't even have the guts
Yeah, here I am backing up
I'm taking my heart back cause I've had enough
But I hey I'm breaking free just watch me walk away
Had your hooks in me but I escaped
I don't need excuses
Done with your abuses
Telling me that I'm not strong baby
Hey just listen to the song cause
I, I proved you wrong
Yeah, I proved you wrong
Hey I'm done with you and all the lies you made
You were such a mistake
Hey I'm breaking free just watch me walk away
Had your hooks in me but I escaped
I don't need excuses
Done with your abuses
Telling me that I'm not strong baby
Hey just listen to the song cause
I, I, I proved you wrong
I, I, I proved you wrong
I, I, I proved you wrong
I, I, I proved you wrong
