

Beauty In a Car Crash

Flight 409

So we've become so cinematic
With every word you come unglued
So I'll let this settle
Ferment and grow
Till were both completely out of control.

(Chorus)

How was I supposed to I know?
Retrace my steps, find my way home
How was I supposed to know?
Retrace these steps, find our way home

So I'll push my seat back as far it will go
Hold on tight
As your lungs collapse
I can't wait till the impact hits you in the face
You can finally see what we were meant to be.

Chorus.

With my lungs collapsing
I'm drowning in the backseat
Holding onto nothing,
Thats all thats left of me.

These breaks are going out,
I'm looking straight ahead
Before we both go out,
I loved you half to death(x3)

Chorus

There's beauty in a car crash
There's beauty in the payback
This is my big city shakedown
Where there's beauty in the break down.

Oh...
