Playground

High Dive Heart

Summer time in that old sand box
Filthy rich, when my jewels were rocks
No holes in my soul, just my socks Kickball kickin' with Goldilocks
That's why they call 'em the good ole days Making up rules to the games we played Too damn young to appreciate we already had it madeIf I knew then, what I know right now
I would've stayed on the playground
I left my heart in the lost and found
I should've stayed on the playground
Should've stayed, should've stayed,
should've stayed, should've stayed on the playground
Should've stayed, should've stayed, should've stayed, should've stayed on the playgroundFlyin' high on the tire swing, head back livin' in luxury
In the cul de sac, I was the king with the four square championship ring
That's why they call e'm the good ole days
Taking on the world cause we weren't afraid Jumping off rooftops in our skates cause we didn't know we could breakIf I knew then, what I know right now
I would've stayed on the playground
I left my heart in the lost and found
I should've stayed on the playground
Should've stayed, should've stayed,
should've stayed, should've stayed on the playground
Should've stayed, should've stayed, should've stayed, should've stayed on the playgroundRemember when we were punk ass kids Didn't know enough to give a shit
And we can't get back our innocence but for now let's reminisceIf I knew then, what I know right now
I would've stayed on the playground
I left my heart in the lost and found
I should've stayed on the playground
Should've stayed, should've stayed,
should've stayed, should've stayed on the playground
Should've stayed, should've stayed, should've stayed, should've stayed on the playgroundWe don't wanna grow (4x)If I knew then, what I know right now
I would've stayed on the playground

I should've stayed on the playground
