Through the Cracks

Godhead

Forever searching within to find the reason to be here
Can't send the nightmares away
Can't find a single word to sayYou've captured all my fear
And this suffering my dear
Why am I here?Walking above the shadows I fall down
Up through the cracks the weeds grow
To swallow me wholeAnd now I'm spinning in place
Can't find a way to end this race
I try to just close my eyes
Dream of another timeYou've captured all my fear
End this sufferingWalking above the shadows I fall down
Up through the cracks the weeds grow
To swallow me wholeAs I lay beside the road
Always doing what I'm told
I feel the anger start to rise
You feel the hatred in my eyesWalking above the shadows I fall down
Up through the cracks the weeds grow
To swallow you whole
