The Blurring Lines Of Loss

Moments In Grace

Time
Time passes right by
The blurring lines of loss
Scared
Scared to find the trust
The trust that binds us to one
One
[Chorus:]This is a life built on broken promises
We live our lives with the pain of regret
I can't seem to understand
Why these days fade
I turn away
Scared and defenseless

Finally I can keep myself awake
In this tragic hell
This hell
[Chorus x2]We've been waiting for another day
We've been searching for a simple way
We've been trying to figure out how to save ourselves
We've been waiting for another day
We've been searching for a simple way
From ourselves
[Chorus x2]
