Palmistry

Speeding on ice, so take it slow.
Love from the lungs, begin to glow.
Mountain of salt, I'm well below.
What do we need to get along?Weed and rice, in love with you
The clouds rise, you know it's true.
Oh yes, my sweet, you don't have to say
Feel my lips, have your way.I'm by the river, come find me,
Skies bloom, honeybee
An aromatic sway,
And with it a hope, a springYou're the song I love to sing
You're the one I long to be.
I'll always bring a sour touch.
I've said too much,
I've not said enough.
Off-beat and terminal,
Doesn't take much to let it go.
I love it when you hold me slow,
She love it when I sing:Protect her, protect her,
The loveline left her.Protect her, protect her,
She love my eyes,
I love it when she dance so low.Hear the chorus, the chant is on.
I love it, control me,
The way it holds me,
and the way you sweat those words.Realize in love, I know.
Love, will you see beyond echoes?
By a soul still white to sin,
I always knew it would take so long.
I'm by the river, come find me,
Skies bloom, a honeybee
An aroma sways to me, and with it, joys blossoming.You're the song I love to sing
You're the one I long to be.
Not too late to make it work,
and invest for all it's worth.You're the song I love to sing
You're the one I long to be.
I love it, control me,
I love it when you sing:Protect her, protect her,
The loveline left her.I love it when you go so slow,
I love it when you reach below,

I love it when you dance slow,
This time in my eyes. The chant and the chorus is on,
I love it when you hold me so, baby.
I love it when you go so low.
