Stealth

Nils Janson

Below these planetarium skies
I run towards you
The horizontal bungy pulls me back
Though I adore youThey say that we will never know it
Unless we surrender to it
There are signs everywhere
Telling me that planet Earth is just one big tripHeld hostage in a dream
Following a shadow of a shadow
Held hostage in a dream
Following a shadow of a shadowHave I ever truly loved?
Does the rain and sun sprout seeds of stealth?
I'm waiting patiently for the day
When I let the world turn by itselfTill the moment when I'm dancing like no one's watching
Please don't depend on me
I see it differently
But I'm always grateful when another soul believes in meHeld hostage in a dream
Following a shadow of a shadow
Held hostage in a dream
Following a shadow of a shadowHeld hostage in a dream
Following a shadow of a shadow
Held hostage in a dream
Following a shadow of a shadowHeld hostage in a dream
Following a shadow of a shadow
Held hostage in a dream
Following a shadow of a shadow
