Live Like You're Loved

Mark Schultz

She packed up her bags and she turned to tell them goodbye
She kissed her dad and promised her momma she?d write
For 18 years she?d been their baby
Oh, but now she will learn how to fly
Live like you?re loved by the Lord up above
Spread out your wings and never give up
?Cause you can do anything, be who you?re meant to be
Always remember to dream and keep your head up
And live like you?re loved
Now she?s out on her own making her way in this life
And some days are fair, but some days she barely gets by
But when she feels alone, she picks up the phone just to hear her daddy?s voice
He says ?I tell the whole world I?m proud of you girl?
And before she tells him goodbye, he says

Live like you?re loved by the Lord up above
Spread out your wings and never give up
?Cause you can do anything, be who you?re meant to be
Always remember to dream and keep your head up
And live like
You?re loved by the Lord of the whole universe
Loved by the Maker of heaven and earth
Loved by the Father again and again
Loved with a love without end
Live like you?re loved by the Lord up above
Spread out your wings and never give up
?Cause you can do anything, be who you?re meant to be
Always remember to dream and keep your head up
And live like you?re loved
Live like you?re loved
Oh, live like you?re loved
