Light Years

Slowcoaster

Borrow me a shoeshine, lend me a smile
You take an inch and Iâ€™ll take a mile
Iâ€™m a nail-biting bastard
And youâ€™re a nuclear disaster
You get your feet wet, watchinâ€™ the sunset

Little girls all melt in the rainâ€™
You got your problems we are the same
Iâ€™m a hand-me-down suitcase
And youâ€™re a million dollar heartache
You get your feet wet, watchinâ€™ the sunset
It went by so fast, touchinâ€™ a bomb blast

We will be light years from here
Piss on your innocence and disappear
We will be light years from here
Piss on your innocence and disappear

Borrow me that shoeshine, lend me a smile
You pull the string and Iâ€™ll turn the dials
Iâ€™ll only make it faster, Iâ€™m the wall youâ€™re the plaster
You get your feet wet, watchinâ€™ the sunset
It went by so fast, touching a bomb blast

We will be light years from here
Piss on your innocence and disappear
We will be light years from here
Piss on your innocence and disappear

We will be light years from here
Piss on your innocence and disappear
We will be light years from here
Piss on your innocence and disappear
