

Dark Riders (ft. Buc Fifty)

Swollen Members

Born in fire, built in this empire
Can't get no higher or stop my desire
Dark Riders, we be pullin' all nighters
Never see us perspire building this empire Born in fire, built in this empire
Can't get no higher or stop my desire
Dark Riders, we be pullin' all nighters
Never see us perspire building this empire Order the launch, blow the fuck out the insubordinate
Blow the court at the plan, can't change the coordinates
On course threatened by force, passed the limit
Mutilate the meek, terrorize the timid Murder in a minute then it's mission accomplished
Corner the confused then stomp with my accomplice
Vigorously weak, disfigure at random
And still remain the most vain in this chain of commandments Branded it's the beast this is mad child unleashed
God bless the masterpiece, one sinner with inner peace
Release the hound, sound with a demented twist
Bent but the incentive is inventiveness Pay dues, man come on I spent the rent on this
Reap the whirlwind of the experimentalists
No time for gentleness, I've got moves to make
Have fun, ridin' the same bus that I used to take Chemical weapons specialist that's here to diffuse
That shit you call the bomb
Because that's yesterdays news
Word up Born in fire, built in this empire
Can't get no higher or stop my desire
Dark Riders, we be pullin' all nighters
Never see us perspire building this empire Born in fire, built in this empire
Can't get no higher or stop my desire
Dark Riders, we be pullin' all nighters
Never see us perspire building this empire The superficial, metamorphin' their bodies to pixel
Tryna lose me, 'cuz they know I go for gristle
This will eventually run its natural course
And the weasels who ram-skin in the house of the lords Us, the cannon ball crushin' misguided angel
Bent on performance in the symbol of our label
It's simple, the cradle to the grave and so forth
You've heard other speeches by those breaching the default Sea salt, eye of newt, horn of bison
I've sworn allegiance to the league of striking lightning
We fall when we choose, and confuse you with patterns
The legend of the two who induced you like dragons We strike like swooping Gargoyles of Saint Catherine
I'm taking parts of hard earned parts unimagined
It happens, when lacking a variety of guidance

The good ones die young and dive in to the silence
Born in fire, built in this empire
Can't get no higher or stop my desire
Dark Riders, we be pullin' all nighters
Never see us perspire building this empire
Born in fire, built in this empire
Can't get no higher or stop my desire
Dark Riders, we be pullin' all nighters
Never see us perspire building this empire
The torment of getting caught up in the moment
And having to be on the receiving end of my orbit
This axis, acts as light and dark passage
And guides me passed The Styx River floating caskets
Promoting collapsing lungs and charcoal tablets
The howling wolf pack who dwells in echoing madness
Cage driven, rage livin' in veins of access
Engage the driven and incisions are the process
Check the flip side of the coin, Dark Riders perform
Words rip right through ya skull tucked inside of the storm
It's hard to hide if you're warm-blooded, we sense heat
Predators that feed off flesh to make ends meet
Here's a guarantee, death is instantaneous
Mercilessly, we maim the miscellaneous
Conquer all my challenges by reaching within
Then mad child leaves with the screech of the wind
Born in fire, built in this empire
Can't get no higher or stop my desire
Dark Riders, we be pullin' all nighters
Never see us perspire building this empire
Born in fire, built in this empire
Can't get no higher or stop my desire
Dark Riders, we be pullin' all nighters
Never see us perspire building this empire
