

Fill In the Blank

Jimmie's Chicken Shack

You could love this, it's just a little word
You take it out on occasion when it's necessary
We could believe this, and lead our hearts astray
Still there is something saying it doesn't matter anyway

So stay down, if you fall, I'll find it so unnecessary
To think thin or walk tall
You understand me but only to the contrary

You couldn't know this, such a dirty word
You move around around and invade your mass of temporary
If we could live here and play the part of today
Still there is something saying nothing matters anyway

So stay down, if you fall, I'll find it so unnecessary
To think thin, talk small
True understanding never seems to carry

Another blow to the head we could learn to play dead
And fill in the blank
We could achieve this, if we started to dance or
We could play dead, wouldn't take it instead
Another hole in the head
And fill in the blank
I find it so unnecessary to
Fill in the blank
I find it so unnecessary
To fill in the blank

My answers always temporary
Fill in the blank
I'm close to being I'm almost scary
Can't fill in the blank
